MARCUS J. MOLINARO Dutchess County Executive

"The two most important days in your life are the day you are born and the day you find out why." #PurposeBeforePolitics

Molinaro was first elected to public office at the age of 18 in 1994, serving on the Village of Tivoli Board of Trustees. In 1995, he became the youngest mayor in the United States. He was re-elected mayor five times and elected four times to the Dutchess County Legislature. In 2006, he was elected to represent the 103rd District in the New York State Assembly. Governor Andrew Cuomo appointed him to serve on the Governor's Mandate Relief Redesign Team. He is the current Dutchess County Executive.

ROBERT FUCHS, ESQ A BRIEF REVIEW OF U.S. IMMIGRATION LAW AND HISTORY

FRANC PALAIA Artist and Muralist on his recent trip to Cuba

My talk will focus on the state of Cuba 4 years after Pres. Obama's opening of the door to Cuba. I will discuss the changes in the country in terms of infrastructure, businesses, street culture, and general conditions and opinions of the local Havana citizens.

I will show mostly street murals and surrounding structural conditions.
